

Samuel T. Daniels

August 28, 1922 - January 6, 2005

On Thursday, evening, January 6, 2005 at 4:55p.m. , Samuel Thornton Daniels, Sr. Joined that innumerable caravan which moves toward that mysterious realm, where each shall take his chamber in the silent halls of death! His wife of 60 years, Gladys Eva Wise Daniels, and their sons, Thornton and Van, were beside when he expired at Levindale Hebrew Geriatrics Center. Prince Hall Masons from around the world had been holding vigil and offering prayer(s) for Sam, who for thirty-eight years was Grand Master of the Prince Hall Masons of Maryland. Sam, "The Grand", was born on August 28th, 1922 in Baltimore, to the late William and Maritta Hatton Daniels. He was the youngest of three sons, middle brother Edward and the late William Daniels. Served in World War II and the Korean War, attaining the rank of Captain. In February 1940, Sam graduated from Douglass High School (Parren J. Mitchell, Maryland's first black congressman, was a classmate) and a year later was smitten by comely freshman, Gladys, at Coppin Teachers' College, (now Coppin State). While serving in World War II, Sam wed Gladys in Baltimore on August 14, 1944. After receiving his honorable discharge, Captain Daniels returned to Coppin and graduated in 1948. Gladys had begun her teaching career in the Baltimore City Schools. In 1947, first son, Samuel Thornton Daniels, Jr. was born. December 13, 1955, Van Burley Daniels arrived. Gladys' stepfather, Vanderbilt Burley was a staunch mason and through his influence and mother-in-law, Alma Powell Wise Burley, Sam joined the craft in 1946. His ingenuity, leadership qualities, and hard work led to Sam being elected Grand Master following the illness and subsequent demise of Willard Allen. Sam, lovingly known by "The Family" as "The Grand" provided leadership that earned him praise from Prince Hall Masons worldwide. Some of his numerous contributions and achievements are listed in his résumé. "The Grand" Has Gone To Rest! Left with precious memories are Devoted Wife, Gladys; Sons, Thornton and Van; Brother, Ed Daniels; Grandchildren, Van, II, Anthony, and Co-Co; Daughters-In-Law, Betty and Joyce Daniels; Nephew, William Daniels; and a Host of Friends here and abroad. See You Later!

“ To the family of Mr. Daniels, Sr., I wanted to take this time to express my condolences on the loss of your loved one. I wanted to let you know that the Bible offers hope and comfort at times like this. The scriptures tells us that God is a God of Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 & Isaiah 66:13). They also tell us that he sees our plight is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves, Psalm 34:18. There is also hope of seeing our dead loved ones again in a different world free from all the stresses of this world. A world where there are no crimes, sickness, death, poverty, etc. These promises can be found at scriptures such as Psalm, 37:10, 11; Revelation 21:3, 4; John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 26:19; Hosea 13:14. There are plenty of other scriptures but time will not permit me to give them all to you. The next time Jehovah’s Witnesses knock on your door please if you ask them they will be more than happy to give you more comfort from the scriptures. Please take the time to read the scriptures mentioned and draw comfort from them whenever you feel the need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. A person that is so active in helping others makes such an impact on our lives. Such a person is not forgotten by us or by Almighty God. Malachi 3:16 tells us that God has a "book of remembrance." Job 14:15 assures us that God "will call" and the dead "will answer", they will come back to life. In that Paradise earth there will be no sorrow, sickness death or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) May these divinely inspired promises give you solace and strength in the days until these promises are fulfilled.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
