

Samuel Willard Jones

July 20, 1919 - April 26, 2009

Samuel Willard Jones was born to Samuel Jones and Edith Winslow on July 20, 1919 in Newport News, Virginia. He grew up to be a strong young man who joined the Merchant Marines in his early twenties and retired as a Maintenance Supervisor at the Court Square Building in Baltimore, Maryland. In time he married a young woman named Helen Dickson whom he would spend the rest of his life with. Sam, or Sammy as called him, was a man who was fun to be around. He enjoyed cooking, fishing and watching football. He will be forever missed. Today, Samuel leaves behind: a devoted wife, Helen Jones, and eleven children, Sharlene Roberson, Tammany Jones, Yolanda Jones, Faye Smith, Samuel Willard Jones 3rd, Raymond Jones, Brenda Jones, Denise Charles, Gary Jones, Pamela Jenkins and Beatrice. He also leaves behind forty-eight grandchildren, sixty-six great-grandchildren and six great great grandchildren. He's joined in heaven with his sister Viola, son Tyrone Jones and grandson Timothy Roberson, and two devoted grandchildren Christina Jones and Christopher Roberson.

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. Throughout the bible Jesus demonstrated his love for man. May you be comforted with the resurrection hope in which he spoke about at John 11:38-44, with his friend Lazarus. May these verses give you the strength and comfort that you need at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
