

Samuel Williams

August 24, 1930 - September 15, 2003

Samuel Williams, son of the late Benjamin and Inez Williams, was born on August 24, 1930 in Virginia. Sammy, as he was called, quietly ended his journey on September 15, 2003 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. He was educated in Virginia, then moved to Baltimore to continue his education. Sammy then went on to work for Alex Cooper (whom he chauffeured), Bethlehem Steel, and later for the City of Baltimore. Sammy loved to go crabbing, which was one of the things he loved to do best—besides being with his “Booc” as he called her. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of fifty-one years, Beatrice Williams; nine children, Samuel, Beatrice, Darlene, Derry, Guy, Lisa, Tracy, Vicki and his baby boy, Mark (his son, James preceded him in death); twenty-one grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren; two daughters-in-law, Nancy and Valerie; five sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Williams' Family: I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family and friends. I know that Mr. Samuel Williams will be missed by all who loved him. The Bible is comforting in this regards. It promises a "resurrection" {John 5: 28 29} into a "paradise ( Luke 23: 43). Yes, Almighty God, through his son Jesus Christ, will bring back our dearly beloved ones. I pray that you rely on His many promises recorded in the Bible for strength to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
