

Sandia A. Nesmith

July 19, 1951 - August 8, 2002

Sandia Ann Nesmith, daughter of Rev. Marvin G. Hines and Catherine Hines, was born on July 19, 1951 in Mullins, South Carolina. She departed this life on August 8, 2002 at 11:35 a.m. after a brief illness beginning November 21, 2001. She received her education in Palmetto High School in Mullins, South Carolina. She also attended college in South Carolina; after which she moved to Chicago, where she was employed as a stenographer for one of the area hospitals. From there, she moved to Baltimore in 1968 and began her employment at a company whose name changed several times, but was contracted by the armed forces. She worked there for twenty years. From there she went to U.S. Can for seven years until her health began to fail her. Sandy was a very outgoing person. She liked music, cooking and loved to sew. She was a very good seamstress. She leaves to mourn: her mother and father, Rev. Marvin and Mrs. Catherine Hines; one sister, Shannon Keyon Hines and brother, Marvin Keon of Baltimore, Maryland ; three uncles, George Hines of Washington, D.C. Clifford Hines of East St. Louis, Illinois and Earl of San Antonio, Texas; five aunts, Gloria Jean Hawkins of East St. Louis, Illinois, Bernice Hines of East St. Louis, Illinois, Margie Hines of San Antonio, Texas, Rose Wheeler of Hopkinsville, Kentucky and Mollie Williams of Sullivan, Georgia; godsister, Glenda Cooper of Baltimore, Maryland; a host of other relatives and friends, including a very special friend, David Lee Garrett.

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
