“ I am so sorry to hear about the death of your most precious loved one Sandra Allison. I know that this is a difficult time for you and I pray that with the passing of time things will get better. How good to know that our loving heavenly father has promised to bring all those who have died back to life by means of the resurrection. JOhn5:28-29 What a wonderful time that will be! Until then I pray that your minds and hearts will be at peace and that you will know how much others care and are praying for you. Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in the promises of God and find inner peace!

“ *Mykel you know how much Aunt Sandra meant to me. I'm so so sorry that she has left the family. I know your heart is very heavy at this time, but as you know we can not question the Lords decision he felt the need to take her home so that she wouldn't be in any more pain. I will be here for you always.,
I Love you my cousin. Robin.*

“ I am very sorry that death has robbed your family of someone you loved. In the Bible there are many scriptures that provide comfort. Our heavenly father knows your distress. Jehovah our GOD is referred to as the “The Father of tender mercies and the GOD of all comfort.” Please read 2 Cor 1:3-4, Psalms 34:18 and Isaiah 65:2 for words of comfort at what must be one of the most difficult times of your lives.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
