

Sandra R. Arrington

December 26, 1953 - December 4, 2017

Sandra Renee Arrington was born on December 26, 1953 to Laura and the late William Arrington in Baltimore, Maryland. Sandra departed this life suddenly on December 4, 2017. In her early years known to everybody as Reds. She was raised her whole life in Baltimore City. Sandra received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Sandra was the Matriarch of the family and highly admired by her siblings, nieces, nephews and neighbors who looked to her for advice, love and guidance. She had six children of her own but that never stopped her from taking in others as her own. She loved to cook and feed everybody on Sundays. She also had a love of listening to music and playing cards, especially pinochie. She was fun loving and had a mouth on her that put Sailors to shame. I think all her children inherited and that part of her along with her strength and compassion.

Auntie as she was affectionately called her an impact on everybody here and many others that couldn't make it. So, we are here to celebrate the fun, loving, and crazy woman she was.

Sandra was preceded in death by her father William Leroy Arrington, brother Leroy(Dumpie) Gordan, Sister Brenda DeShields, sister Vanessa Wilson, brother Shakir Mumin, brother William Arrington, and sister Nanette Arrington. She leaves to mourn her mother Laura Arrington, sisters Barbara, Denise and Genise. Brothers Albert and Ronnie her only goddaughter Audrey. And the man that stood by her side for many years fathers and grandfather Paul Haynie Sr.

Sandra is survived by four daughters, Charon Simmons, Sharelle Anderson, Khaili DeSiels and Tameka Haynie, two sons, Deon DeShields Sr. and Paul Haynie Jr. (JP). Son in-law Han Simmons. Three honorary children who you couldn't tell her they weren't hers Larry Patterson, Annette Anderson and Nicole Renee. She had 18 grandchildren, Jabril, Brittany, Nuk, Malique, Malsean, Deon Jr, Deleon, Kaliyah Sandra, Samira, Destiny, Dabriah, Saria, Marnie, Marcus, Saniya, Daniel, Skye, and Will. Four great grandchildren Malone, MJ, Malynn and Dylan.

She is also survived by many other grandkids, nieced, nephews, relatives and a host of friends who will miss her. She is gone but will never ever be forgotten!!
