

Sandra Mae Bynum

June 10, 1951 - January 2, 2016

Sandra Mae Bynum, 64, of Richmond, Virginia departed this life January 2, 2016. She was born June 6, 1951 to the late Beatrice and Walter Wallace Sr.

Upon graduating from Armstrong High School she furthered her education and graduated as a Nursing Assistant and then began to work at McGuire Veterans Hospital for several years. She later made her career working at Westminster Canterbury Retirement Home as a dedicated employee, where she retired.

She loved worshipping at various churches in the Richmond area. Even during her illness she showed loving compassion for the need of others, besides her brothers. She possessed a loving and sweet spirit and made friends everywhere she would go. Sandra will be greatly missed for her kindness and lending a helping hand to others. She was a caring mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend.

She was preceded in death by her brother, John Hawkins. She leaves to cherish her memory two caring sons, Keith Wallace (Scarlet) and Kevin Wallace; four grandchildren, Ricardo Jones, Blake Wallace, Keith Wallace Jr. and K'Von Wallace; four sisters, Patsy Mayo (Dr. Reginald Mayo), Jean Johnson, Shirley Young and Doris Davis; two brothers, Walter Wallace Jr. (Carolyn) and Melvin Wallace (Brenda); aunt, Peggie Hawkins; devoted cousin, Virginia Norman; and a host of other nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Ms. Bynum will be missed! I enjoyed each moment I got to spend with her and I'll always remember her quick wit and hilarious sense of humor. Even when she felt ill, she would find something to smile about. Peace to you, her family and friends.

“ Sandy, Sandy, Sandy. You could walk in and light up a place. I will miss you, but I will always remember the good times we had at Bingo and West Virginia. No more pain you have to bare, no more tears we need to share. God will be your keeper now. He will bless your sons, sisters and family in this time of sorrow and grief. Until we meet again, your friend forever, Kitty
