

Sandra Lee Cephas

February 9, 1952 - November 30, 2010

SANDRA LEE THORNE-CEPHAS, daughter of the late Robert and Berlean Thorne, was born on February 9, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. Sandra departed this life on November 30, 2010.

Sandra received her education at Frederick Douglass High School. After high school Sandra was a volunteer at Matthew A. Henson Elementary School for many years. Sandra like very much to help others, quilting, working crossword puzzles and making sure her daughters were all right.

Sandra met Earl Butler and from this relationship she has two daughters, Berlean Jessica and Raven Danielle Thorne, who were her life and joy. Sandra's life revolved around her Raven and Jessica each and every day until she became a grandmother.

Sandra is a twin and Sharon is the other half of Sandra. Sandra and Sharon were more than twins, they were each other best friend, inseparable. Most people knew them as the twins from Monroe Street. Their bond was more than anyone could imagine.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her faithful and devoted daughters, Jessica and Raven; seven grandchildren, Joshua, Jah'Miya, Keon, Erika, Daejanae, Jessica and Tahjae; four sisters, Patrica White, Sharron Thorne,

Deborah Ruffin and Roslyn Campbell; three brother-in-law, Haywood White, William Ruffin and William (Billy) Campbell; a devoted friend, Cherly; and a host of other relatives and friends.
