

Sandra F. Cunningham

May 23, 1955 - October 13, 2017

May 23, 1955 begins the journey for SANDRA FAYE CUNNINGHAM daughter of the late Ben Cunningham, Sr. and Mary Cockfield. As with any creation of life it will be filled with its fair amount of hardships and achievements.

To say the least she had a beautiful mind, becoming a valor Victoria in high school; while also attending two well respected collages in her time. Later in life, Sandra would marry and begin to bring life into the world. Four sons she would have, Alonzo Key Jr., Jerai Key, Warrick Cunningham and William Donaven which whom she loved with all her heart for anyone that knew her. Our mother was a special woman. To know this, you would have to had interacted with her and have been around her to appreciate the level her heart that she exposed you to. Her laugh, frustration, and wisdom shaped her into the personality that was tough as nails, stubborn as a mule, but with high spirituality that you grew to love. For anyone reading this you know that a scratch-off is on top of her wish list. When she comes to visit or her wanting to cook or clean for you while she is in your presence. A true heart of gold that would give her last penny and also spend it, she loved people and we are proud to have called her mother, grandma, and friend. One thing that everyone knew is that Sandra was going to do what Sandra wanted. In short there is no amount of time spent telling you how great she was because we will never forget the memory of how she left a happy imprint on our lives.

Sandra leaves to mourn: her three living children, Alonzo, Warrick and William; one sibling, Annie Cunningham; a host of grandchildren, cousins, aunts, uncles, nieces, daughters-in-law, friends and so many others that she has touched throughout her time on this earth.
