

Sandra Deborah Faulkner

October 3, 1948 - January 28, 2007

Sandra Deborah Faulkner (known to most as Grandma) was born in Baltimore, Maryland to her late parents James and Lucille Anderson. As a young child she attended Baltimore City public schools. She and the late William Faulkner were united in marriage in 1962. She moved to New York City in the mid 1970's. She later attended the College of New Rochelle. She returned to her hometown in Baltimore, Maryland in 1996. She later joined the Sharon Seventh Day Adventist Church. Sandra was a caring mother and grandmother who always gave her very best when it came to advice and inspiration. She had an abundance of love, compassion, and faith in her family, friends, and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She was the kind of person who would give her last to help another in need. She had faith in God and knew that all things was possible through His name. Sandra went home to be with the Lord on January 28, 2007. She is survived by: seven children, William A. Faulkner Jr. (Billy), Angela Faulkner (Wayne) Smalls, Terry Faulkner Longmire, Kenneth Faulkner, Wiley Antoine Roberson (Tee), Dionne N. Dees (Germaine) Council and Nechelle Smallwood; two sisters, Sara and Joan; two sisters whom preceded her in death, Gloria and Elaine; twenty-one grandchildren, one great-grandchild and a host of nieces and nephews; two daughters-in-law, one brother-in-law; one aunt, (Robey), one cousin, Dorothy (Dottie) who was like a sister; and a host of friends and fellow church members.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for your loss. Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us that "there is going to be a resurrection. From the Bible we learn that this will take place in a peaceful new world in which there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See 2 Peter 3:13, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) May you receive much comfort and strength as you think on these loving promises from the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon H.##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Faulkner, please accept my sincere condolences. Although I didn't know her personally, death has touched us all, and I wanted to offer a comforting thought to the family; because I know how deeply death hurts us. The bible can comfort us all at such times, because it tells us the true hope for the dead which is the resurrection. The apostles of Jesus put faith in the resurrection and Paul wrote at Acts 24:15, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." So our loved ones will be awakened from the sleep of death to live in a beautiful restored paradise earth. 2nd Peter 3:13 tells us, "But there are new heavens and a new earth which we are awaiting, and in these righteousness is to dwell." May the hope of being reunited with your loved one again bring you much peace and comfort.##imported-begin##R

“ They say that time is a great healer of pain and sorrow, I hope that the time that has passed is helping your family to heal, Jehovah God has promised that in the near future there will be no more death, the former things will have passed away (Revelation 21: 4) until then let the memories of your loved one help you to deal with your loss. In time the memories will come without the pain. My deepest sympathy is with all of you.###imported-begin##Josephine###imported-end##
