

Sandra E. Garnette

September 7, 1960 - October 21, 2006

On September 7, 1960, SANDRA ELAINE GARNETT, fondly called “Sandy” by loving family and friends began her earthly journey. The fourth daughter of the late Howard Linwood Garnett and Ella Elizabeth Wiggins, she was a devoted, caring, unconditionally loving and witty person that would brighten the cloudiest day. Her aura and persona were such that her daughter, siblings, other family members and friends were blessed by her presence. Sandra received her early education in the Baltimore City public Schools in East Baltimore, where she took great pride in the accomplishment of obtaining a good education, which she passed on and instilled in her daughter. Sandra's major was in the area of Home Economics. She enjoyed sewing and cooking for her family and friends. Sandra received her high school diploma from Lake Clifton High School. Upon completion of her education, Sandra became employed at Sterling Optical. When not working, Sandra enjoyed pursuing her interest and love as a writer. She worked endless nights publishing various types of literary works. Early in her life, Sandra Joined Temple Baptist Church where she devoted her service to the Lord and gave her life to Christ. She enjoyed working as the pastor's administrative assistant where she helped to provide to those in need. On Saturday, October 21, 2006, Sandra completed her earthly journey and has gone to take the place that has been prepared for her. Her memory will live on through all those she left behind. She leaves to cherish her memories: daughter, Dashawn Chanell Turner; two sisters, Gloria Garnett-Rowlette and Deniece Garnett; three brothers, Lewis Quickley,

Jerome Garnett and Jeffrey Garnett; three sisters-in-law, Deborah Quickley, Sharon Garnett and Shawn Garnett; brother-in-law, Jerry Rowlette; a special extended family member, Cheryl Simmons White; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I am a childhood friend of Sandra daughter. My mom is a good friend & of Dayshawn's aunt. My heart strongly goes out to the family & friends. May God bless the family and spread his love around all who loved Sandra. I think Ms. Sandra was a nice person and she raised her only child the best she knew her. She was the best mom to her daughter she will be in my heart forever. I will see her again in heaven one of these days. She is in the safety of the Lord! She found a good fight her battle is over. Sandra a Angel in the gates of heaven. One that will never be forgotten. ##imported-begin## Miss Dawn N. Underdue ##imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to the family during your loss. I also hope that you can find comfort from Acts 24:15. It says that we can have "hope towards God...that there is going to be a resurrection". So your loved one will come to life again in the future. I hope that you will find further comfort from the Bible, the best source of comfort.##imported-begin##Kendra Adams##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. First Corinthians chapter 15 verse 26 lovingly tells us that our "enemy death" will one day be "destroyed". One day soon Almighty God will get rid of all death, sickness, sorrow and pain.(see Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29 and Psalm 37:29) May you receive much comfort and strength from this hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To Dashawn and the Garnett/Turner families: I miss Sandra, and I can't believe it's only been a few months since she passed away. I know that she is in better place along with Aunt Ella, Grandma Liz, Granddaddy Scotty, and my father, Buddy. I love you all, and I miss you all. Love always, Your cousin, Jacqueline Scott (aka) Cissy##imported-begin##Jacqueline Scott##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
