

Sandra Lee Houston

July 18, 1942 - July 13, 2004

Sandra Lee Houston, daughter of the late Cornelius Rice and Naomi Smallwood was born on July 18, 1942, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on July 13, 2004, after a lengthy illness. She was educated through the Baltimore City Public School. At an early age she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. Sandra joined the Church of God and Saints of Christ. Sandra married her childhood sweetheart, Jerome in 1959, and from this union they had six children. She worked as a Custodian with the Baltimore City Public Schools. She had such a love for children; she became a Daycare Provider. She raised over 100 children over a period of 30 years. In 1959, she joined and graduated from the order of Eastern Star School of Instruction Naomi Grand Chapter. She was a devoted member of many chapters and held various positions within the organization. One of Sandra's dreams and driving force in life was to see each and every one of her children graduated from High school. Her dream was fulfilled and concluded in May of 1987. Sandra loved to travel and experience different places. She visited the Caribbean, Disney World, Los Vegas, and many other places from coast to coast. She was a loving, supportive and compassionate woman. Sandra was known for going out of her way to help those in need. Although her family was everything to her, she still made helping others a daily routine. She also had a passion for dressing and wearing extravagant hats that were a representation of her personality, which was "One of a Kind." She leaves to mourn a devoted and loving husband of 44 years Jerome, Sr.; four daughters, Christine Mines,

Esther Johnson, Chanel Farmer and Sharon Houston; two sons, Jerome Jr., and Jonathan Houston; one sister, Darlene Gross; four sons-in-law; 12 grandchildren; nieces; nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Jerome...I was so sadden to hear the news of Sandy's death. When I looked at her picture, it was like yesterday of the years that have gone by when we all used to enjoy being in each others company. She is at peace now...watching each of you with a smile as big as her heart. You will always have the memories of the many years you shared with each other as a family, wife, and friend. May God continue to hold you and the family in His arms as He comforts you. One day, we will all meet together again, and bask with delight in God's garden of Eden. Keep your head held high and know that you were, and still are, loved. May God continue to bless you and your family. A Friend Always...##imported-begin##Edith G. Egypt##imported-end##

“ To Sharon and family: We your Marcorp Family wish to extend our prayers and sympathy to you and your family. Always remember that healing happens slowly over weeks, months, years, and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The Staff at Marcorp##imported-end##
