

Sandra Diane Page

April 7, 1953 - November 25, 2012

Sandra Diane Page came into the world on April 7, 1953, born to Addie and Linwood Page and big sister Betty Watson.

An avid reader, Sandra had a thirst for knowledge that was unquenchable. She devoted a love for acting and indulged her love of sports at Highland Springs High School where she was a member of the basketball team. After graduating from high school she attended Virginia Commonwealth University and earned a degree in Sociology. Sandra joined the pharmacy staff of MCV while attending college. She was employed there for 40 years.

In 1992, Sandra gave herself the best birthday gift in the world...she gave birth to a baby girl, Esther Alicia Page. She loved her daughter and was enormously proud of the young woman Alicia has become. She especially enjoyed the activities she and Alicia shared at St. Paul's Baptist Church.

Her joyful personality filled every room. Sandra never met a stranger. It was not unusual to turn around and find her talking and laughing with a brand new friend. She had an amazingly generous spirit. She would literally give you the shirt off of her back, whether she had another to replace it or not. She was quite the comedian and loved to tell jokes, although she could never remember the punch lines.

Sandra had a diverse set of interests. She loved to travel, visiting Spain, Mexico, and the Caribbean. She had a glorious singing voice and loved to dance. She loved good food, whether it was down home or gourmet. She loved to sing at the top of her lungs in the car, while driving fast. In recent years, she took great joy in singing with the Women's Choir of St. Paul's.

Sandra went to be with the Lord on November 25, 2012. Now, she's looking down from His Kingdom with her mother and father at her side. She is watching over her daughter Alicia, sister Betty Watson-Garris, brother-in-law, Eddie Garris, brothers Linwood, Jr. and Jovon, God brother and sister, Dwayne Baskerville and Renee Jeter, best friends Willi Cotton and Jacqueline Blanton, as well as many other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Alisha and Betty,

I am sadden by the passing of Sandra - your mother, sister, and our friend.

I will always remember Sandra's zaney driving skills, her laughter, her indignation at shows like Cops, her love of Black history, her smile, funny stories, and her overall sense of friendship.. We traveled to some fun places: Nags Head, Whiteville, and Baltimore.

I hope you will always remember the good times spent with Sandra as I will.

*In loving memory of a friend gone to soon,

To Alicia, Betty and Eddie our hearts are with you at your time of grief. We know it's always hard losing a love one but always remember that she is not gone her spirit is still here with you she's an angel of God watching over her daughter, sisters and her family smiling down on you all. Take comfort in knowing that now you have a special guardian angel to watch over you all. May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together as you celebrate a life well lived? God Bless You All!

Your Loving Cousins, Felicia, Avis, Dennis, Wendell and Olivia Cotten

P.S. We thank God for Sandra and Betty, you two are so very special to us, I remember the joy, laughter and fun we had together. Sandra we miss you, RIP.
