

Sandra Jean Staley

January 2, 1954 - December 31, 2011

Sandra Jean Staley was born and raised in Baltimore City to John E. Richardson and the late Ruth Irene Richardson on January 2, 1954 at 12:25 a.m. at City Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life at the young age of fifty-seven, on Saturday, December 31, 2011. She was baptized at her home church, City Temple of Baltimore Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland by Reverend William W. Payne.

Sandy was one of four children, two brothers, Edwin and Robert and one sister, Gwendolyn. She graduated from Western High School in 1972. She began her career early as a Reconciliation Clerk with the Social Security Administration directly out of high school. She continued her lasting career of SSA throughout her adult life and decided to retire from there on September 1, 2005.

She was married at a very young age at the age of nineteen to James D. Staley on October 7, 1973 at City Temple of Baltimore Baptist Church to her one and only love by Reverend William W. Payne. From this eternal marriage, three children were born: Dana, Kelly and Dennis. She was preceded in death by her daughter Kelly.

Sandy enjoyed holiday cooking of her southern favorites. She loved being at home after her retirement and was an avid television watcher, especially her daytime and animal shows. She loved working on puzzles of all kinds. Most of all, she enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren when they came to visit. She was a devoted mother, wife, grandmother, sister, friend and confidant. Sandy will be truly missed.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her long-time love and husband of thirty-eight years, James; two children, Dana and Dennis; three grandchildren, Taylor, Tobias and Mariya; a devoted father, John E. (Elaine); two brothers, Edwin (Barbara) And Robert; one sister, Gwendolyn (Phillip); and a host of in-laws, family, friends and co-workers.

“ *I would like to extend my condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. Trusting in God's Promises will give you comfort for your sorrow, courage for each day, strength to face this journey, His Word to light your way and His Peace to fill your heart.
(2 Corinthians 1:3,4)*

M. Johnson - January 04, 2012 at 11:36 AM

“ *I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—
ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!*
