

Mrs. Sandra J. Stephenson

October 16, 1946 - May 21, 2025

Sandra J. Stephenson, 78 affectionately known as "Sandy" of Baltimore passed away peacefully on May 21, 2025.

She was born October 16, 1946 in Baltimore Maryland, to Blanche Blackwell who preceded her in death and raised by her stepfather Charles Blackwell Sr. who also preceded her in death.

Sandy was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt, niece, cousin and great friend. Sandy was known for her generosity, love for baking, shopping, dancing, and most importantly family.

Sandy was educated in the Baltimore Public School System where she graduated from Frederick Douglass High School. She worked for Social Security Administration for 33 years. After retirement Sandy enjoyed quilting, hosting parties and hanging with her two : lunch Brunch groups and the U-turn Girls" She LOVED to travel. All you had to do was ask and she would reply with LET ME CHECK MY CALENDAR.

On February 23, 1974 Sandra married Samuel C. Stephenson Jr. who preceded her in death in 2018. Sandy is survived by two daughters-Natalie Brown(John) and Stephanie Stephenson, She cherished three grandchildren

Kelly(Keon), Tyrone, and Kandace, four great-grandchildren, Jayden(who proceeded with her in death), Tyler Korri, Kaiden and Stephen.

Sandy had eight siblings. Pierre Lievers, Paris Lievers, Eugene Casley who all proceeded her in death . Carolyn Lievers, Faye P Tripp, Dale Blackwell,Wendy Blackwell-Fortune (Melvin) and Nancy Blackwell-Allen (Mike). Nine nieces and nephews: Terry (Anisa), Erica (Rudy-who proceeded her in death).Dawn-goddaughter (Lisa), April (who proceeded her in death), Dale, Jessica, Christian (Brittany), Elijah, Zoe: and a host of other family included aunts uncles great-nieces/nephews and many friends.

Though our hearts are heavy, we are grateful for the memories, love, and laughter she shared with us. She will never be forgotten.
