

Sarah B. Johnson

September 19, 1916 - September 7, 2005

Sarah Johnson was the daughter of the late Robert and Elizabeth Baker. Sarah was born June 19, 1916 in Virginia. After moving to Maryland, she received her education in the Baltimore Public School systems. Early in her life she accepted Jesus as her Lord and Savior. Sarah attended United Baptist Church until her illness hindered her from doing so. The family called her Na Na and Big Mommy, but to her friends she was known as "Snookie". Sarah joined in holy matrimony to the late Jerome Johnson. From this union two children were born. Zelda Reid and one preceded her in death Edward Johnson. The Lord blessed Na Na to live a full life and she lived life to its fullest in that she touched the hearts and lives, of many along the way. She raised four generations of kids: grand, great-grand and great-great grandchildren. She will be remembered as a "Tower of Strength" and a "Monument of Love" to everyone who was a special part of her life, especially her family and friends. Na Na was highly respected by those who accepted her for being "STRAIGHT FORWARD" and having a "Heart of Gold." She leaves to cherish precious memories: a loving and devoted daughter, Zelda Reid; seven grandchildren, Michael Perry, Bernadette Seymour, Sheila Hansley, Ramona Rhyne, Princetta Johnson and two precedes her in death, Sandra Perry and Cynthia Johnson; 12 great grandchildren, twelve great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and special friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
