

Sarah Jane Bass

November 23, 1931 - October 29, 2013

SARAH JANE BASS was a Lady of Peace, Love, and Compassion. Sarah was the second daughter of the late Alfred and Mary Smith. She was born on November 23, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on October 29, 2013.

Sarah was united in holy matrimony to the late Raymond Bass Sr., with whom she shared a beautiful life. Out of this union came two beautiful children, Vanessa and Raymond Jr., who preceded her in death. They were indeed a happy and complete family.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and worked at the University of Maryland Hospital for almost thirty years. She was a dedicated and constructive worker. She loved her job and always gave of herself to her fellow employees and particularly those that she supervised. Sarah was a faithful member of Mount Hope Baptist Church before she came to the Liberty Grace Church of God in 1978. She was one of the ones that marched into the Church with its founder, the Late Eunice M. King on October 5, 1978. She became the secretary until she no longer could do the job, around 2006.

Sarah was a fun-loving, generous woman who always had time to lend a shoulder to cry on or to make you laugh at one of her wisecracking jokes. Always a people person, she loved being a part of any environment where there was free flowing love and laughter.

She was very dedicated to her family and her faith. She left this life feeling spiritually prepared for her next journey. Her faith supported her on many trying times and she never doubted it. Sarah felt that love, laughter, and faith in God was a powerful mixture and could fix just about anything.

She leaves to mourn her: daughter, Vanessa Louise Bass; grandson, Raymond Bass III; three great-grandchildren (Kira, Jordan and Elijah); adopted son, George Raikes; sister, Pearl C. Palmer; adopted sister, Frances L. Sims; a host of nieces, great-nieces, nephews, great-nephews, cousins and friends.

“ *To the family of Ms Sarah J Bass:
Sorry to hear of your loss. Ms Bass was truly a special person who never met a stranger. I met her and her daughter at my sister's home in Randallstown. It was always a joy talking to her face to face or by phone. She will truly be missed. May our Heavenly Father continue to bless, protect, and guide you during this time of sorrow.*

Psalm 23:5-6 5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. 6 Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

“ I am sorry to read about your loss. May God's words in the Bible at Ps 34:18 provide you comfort. The scriptures tells us “HE” is near to those broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit HE saves.

“ In these troubled times, we all face storms. There are economic hardships, depression, failing health, the loss of a loved one in death - these affect us all at one time or another, and we sometimes simply cannot avoid them. It does move us to see persons who appear quite frail show surprising strength and endure such onslaughts (challenges). Often faith is a key (James 1:3). Another key is hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13); there is the hope of the resurrection (John 5: 28, 29; Acts 24:15). This knowledge gives us hope, that hope, in turn, gradually softens grief. It helps us to endure. You can find more encouraging Scriptures @ www.jw.org. May God continue to comfort your family in this stressful time of need.

To family and friends of Sarah Jane Bass:

I am very sorry to hear of your loss, please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible also offers words of comfort and speaks of a time when death, pain and suffering will be no more at Revelation 21:4. Again, I am truly sorry for your loss and I pray this message brings you much comfort.
