“ Sarah's birthday truly defined who she was--a total sweetheart, a true and loyal friend, a kind, generous and gentle spirit. I have all good memories of this wonderful lady and had the pleasure to work with her for a number of years. She loved to laugh and my fondest memories were when we could catch a break during many a hectic day and share a story or a really good laugh.

I will miss her very much and hope in the days ahead these good memories will help to sustain her family and all who knew her.

Rest well my friend you have earned it.

“ I worked with Sarah for many years and she was always happy and ready to help anyone in our group. I once commented on how cute her Christmas card holder was and later that week she gave me one just like hers. I still have it and it reminds me what a sweet person she was. I was fortunate to see Sarah a few months ago and she just as nice, kind and humble as ever. May God give you her family the peace and comfort you need to get through this sad time. Sarah will be missed.

“ *To: The Brown Family.
Please accept my sincere condolences. May you find comfort in God's word the Bible. At Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death forever." Our God has made loving provisions to remove suffering and death from us forever. Our love ones will live again. Read John 6:40;2 Peter 3:13.
May the hope and promises in these Scripture bring you comfort and strength to endure the difficult says ahead.*
