

Sarah Butler

September 16, 1956 - May 23, 2024

Sarah Butler, born on September 16, 1956, in Fayetteville, North Carolina, to the late Harry Cornelus Butler and Mary Lou Bell was a beloved sister to seven siblings: Christopher Bell, Claire Butler, Vivian Butler (Bitty), Mary Butler (Duckie), Christine Butler, Harry Butler, and the late Kevin Butler.

A cherished resident of Baltimore, Maryland, Sarah was known for her boundless generosity and tireless work ethic. She found immense joy in the company of her children and grandchildren and derived great spiritual fulfillment from attending church and immersing herself in the Bible. Her life was a beacon of love and service, touching countless lives with her kindness.

Sarah pursued her education with determination, attending Jobs Corps to earn her GED and later continuing her studies at Sojourner-Douglass College. Her commitment to education was a testament to her enduring spirit and dedication to self-improvement.

After 24 years of dedicated service, Sarah retired from the City of Baltimore as a correctional officer. Her unparalleled hard work and compassion made a profound impact, providing invaluable support to many inmates who fondly remember her help during their incarceration.

Sarah was a beloved sister, mother, grandmother, and friend. She passed away at home on May 23, 2024, at the age of 67. She is survived by her two children, Marvin Richardson (affectionately known as Babe) and Jamey Bryant (lovingly called Lady J). who brought her immense joy and pride. She also leaves behind four treasured grandchildren: Marvin (Lil Babe, age 27: Marzere, age 21 Jayden, age 11, Tony, age 7, along with several nieces, nephews, and friends who will continue to carry her kindness and love forward.

Sarah's life was a testament to her enduring spirit and unwavering dedication to those she loved. Her memory will be forever cherished by all who had the privilege of knowing her. Though she will be deeply missed, her spirit will continue to inspire and guide her family and friends
Rest in peace, Sarah. Your love will remain on our hearts
