

Sarah Aleta Counts

June 20, 1944 - December 10, 2010

SARAH ALETA COUNTS was born in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Arthur Counts and Pauline Mallory on June 29, 1944.

Sarah was educated in the Baltimore City Public School system. She met and married Cornell Myles.

“Sister” as she was affectionately known and “Alena” to her nieces and nephews was a hard worker who worked many different jobs as well as ending her career at Earl Schiebs in 2000. She departed this life on Friday, December 10, 2010 after a lengthy illness.

Throughout Sarah’s illness she never complained. She possessed great strength and courage. Her faith enabled her to endure her illness and except the will of God. She enjoyed and found pleasure traveling, laughing and having family and friends get together

Sarah leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted and loving husband, Cornell Myles; her loving daughter, Tammie Counts and Maria Little; two grandchildren, DeShawna Simms and Deshawndra Simms; sister, Viola Lawson (Aretha Ann Evans Preceded her in death); four brothers, Raymond Towson (Harry Towson preceded her in death), George Evans, Edward Evans and Charles Evans; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and devoted friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Despite this difficult time, you can be comforted by the wonderful hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." Yes, we have the real hope of embracing our loved ones who have died again.
