“ Hello ! Jackson's ! May I take this time to express my deepest sympathy in the lost of Ms. Sarah. Losing a very dear loved one like Ms. Sarah at the age of 93 years young is turly a great lost. The bible say at Ps.90:10, some person would live to be 70 years young and others 80 years young, Ms . Sarah live longer. I as sure her family has many cherished memories of the happy times spent with her. The time is coming when no on will ever die again , good news to hear, indeed. I am looking forward to that time. May all the supportive hearts and hands keep coming your way. Sincerely,

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is such a painful event in our lives, that is so hard to come to grips with. It cuts so deeply into our hearts. May it comfort you to know that others can feel your pain, and continue to offer up prayers in your behalf. Most of all may you find comfort in the scriptures which show us that death and all it's causes will one day be a thing of the past. 1st Cor. 15:26 tells us, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. Our loving father in the heavens, Jehovah promises to bring a permanent end to death, and to bring all of our loved ones back to life again. May these wonderful promises bring you some comfort, as well as your cherished memories of your loved one. When you feel up to it, please read the comforting words found at Rev. 21:3-5, Isaiah 25:8, Daniel 12"2, 2nd Peter 3:13, and Psalm 37:9-11, and 29.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
