

Sarah H. Williams

September 20, 1925 - March 13, 2002

Sarah H. Williams, daughter of the late Fitzhugh and Lena Henderson, was born on September 20, 1925 in Ashland, Virginia. She departed this life on March 13, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the public schools of Ashland, Virginia. She was united in marriage to Luther Hughes Sr. Out of this union three children were born, Deloris, Constance and Luther Jr. (all of whom preceded her in death). Sarah joined Providence Baptist Church in Virginia at an early age, was baptized and enjoyed fellowship there with her family. She was a loving and devoted sister to her siblings. For a number of years, she was employed with the Tobacco Company in Richmond, Virginia. She later remarried George Williams. In 1956, she and her family relocated to Baltimore, Maryland. In 1958, they started their own family restaurant business. She was well known throughout Baltimore City for her good cooking and friendly attitude, which drew the love of the community to her. Sarah attended many churches in Baltimore until she found Saint Paul Baptist. In September 1977, she joined and enjoyed working with and serving others as a Pastor's Aid member. She retired from her business after thirty years of dedicated service. Sarah was well loved by all and always made her available to family and friends when needed. She leaves to mourn: one brother, James Henderson, better known as "Son," who resides in Lanham, Md.; four grandchildren, Pamela Hughes, David Hughes, Sterling (Bear) Jones and Chaunita Bego; on goddaughter, Tia Bizzelle; nieces, a host of other relatives and friends. She will be especially missed by the other two Musketeers, Minnie Poo and Mary Howard.
