

Sarah Holliday

February 3, 1931 - November 25, 2016

SARAH HOLLIDAY was born on February 3, 1931 to the late Katherine Smith.

She attended Baltimore City Public Schools, then Culinary School.

Sarah became employed as head cook for various Italian Restaurants for 30 years. During this time she married the late Joseph Holliday. Leaving her cooking career, Sarah became employed as assistant manager at the Uplands Apartment Complex. For more than 20 years she was the “go-to” person for the residents. Giving such great service, she was given a WJZ 13 Salutes a Hometown Hero Award from Bob Turk and Staff. Sarah remained there until her retirement at age 70.

Sarah was a very devoted mother of the Church of God and Saints of Christ from early childhood. She was serving under the leadership of Elder Abel Buy when she got her call to glory.

Sarah was a quiet and loving person who would help anyone in need. She was loved by all who knew her and will be missed just as much.

Sarah was preceded in death by one son, Daniel D. Smith and by one grandson, Michael R. Harris.

She leaves to mourn: one son, Paul A. Smith; one daughter-in-law, Doris A. Gray; two granddaughters, Cherryl D. Gray and Katrina Smith; two great-grandsons, Jaquan Bell and Ian Page; two great-granddaughters, Tariah Harris, Angela Harris; and a host of cousins and friends.
