

Sarah M. Jackson

January 10, 1943 - May 16, 2013

SARAH MATTIE MAE JACKSON, daughter of the late Waymon F. and Minnie Lee Black, was born on January 10, 1943 in Greenwood, South Carolina. She departed this life on May 16, 2013 suddenly due to illness.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. On January 21, 1961, she married the late William Lester Jackson Sr. and from their union were five children. She was a devoted housewife and mother.

She was the First Lady of the "Road Demons Motorcycle Club" and the "Road Masters Van Club." She was known as "Lady Preacher." Mattie was a member of a bowling team and a very good duckpin bowler. She loved to play Bingo and card games. She liked camping and traveling out of town with the social clubs to camp out or party. She loved to laugh and dance. Her Atlantic City trips were a treat for her, because it was always a reunion with her sisters. Mattie was always a welcoming host to everyone for cookouts, parties and for any social gathering.

She leaves to cherish her memory: five children, Sheron Jackson, William L. Jackson Jr., Sybil Jackson, Gerard Jackson and Gary Jackson; fifteen grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren; four sisters, Ann Lee Henry, Doris (Donald) Moore, Lucille (Roy) Wilkins and Judy Rooks; one brother-in-law, James Earl Jackson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincerest condolences on the loss due to death of your dear loved one. God is the God of all comfort "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." -2 Corinthians 1:3

Bible Student - August 05, 2013 at 06:25 AM

“ My condolence to the family. It times like these that we need comfort from the Bible. The Bible promises that our dear loved ones have the hope of the resurrection hear on earth in the near future we find this promise at (John 5:28, 29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment. The resurrection is possible because God sent his Son to give his life for us. So it is an expression of Jehovah's love and undeserved kindness.—Read John 3:16; Romans 6:23.

“ To The Jackson Family,

For every life has a purpose to fill, a purpose which us humans can seldom infer. You have our deepest sympathy for the loss of your mother. Mrs. Jackson was a wonderful, friendly neighbor. We enjoyed talking over the fence. It's the little things, the small, everyday occurrences that you'll remember. The laughs, the stories, the smiles. And even though it seems like you can never recover from your loss, it is these very memories that will help push the pain away and bring back the smiles. May you all find comfort to know that she is now with her husband and the both will always be there in spirit for each family member. God continue to bless all of you.

“ To the Jackson family: I am sorry to read of your loss. We are never prepared for the passing of our loved ones, and this is because we were not created to die. Our Creator created mankind to live forever. Soon God will return the earth back to a paradise and Sarah M Jackson will be able to live on earth eternally. Please read in your Bible Ecclesiates 3:11 and John 5:28-29 for comfort from God's words.
