“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for your loss. At times, words of encouragement can help us during times of bereavement. At Acts 24:15, Almighty God promise a resurrection" for our dead love ones. Yes, please be comforted by the fact that Almighty God knows our pains and suffering and gives us the hope of the resurrection. May this scripture gives you all a measure of comfort. “ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. At such sad times in our lives, the scriptures can be a great source of comfort. The bible speaks of the sure hope for the dead, which is the resurrection. When he was on the earth, Jesus resurrected many back to life. You can read the account of a widow who lost her only son at Luke 7:11-15. Also at John chapter 11 you can read the account of how Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead. Jesus also spoke of a future resurrection , which his father, Jehocvah, gave him the power to perform. At John 5:25-29 he said: "The hour is coming, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who have given heed will live." "For just as the father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the son to have life in himself. :And he has given him authority to do judging, because Son of man he is. "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.' So according to God"s promise, the dead will live again. May the thought of being reunited with your loved one bring joy to your heart, and give you the strength to go on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
