

Sarah B. Jones

August 31, 1929 - August 27, 2019

Sarah B. Jones was born August 31, 1929 to the late Isreal and Mamie Jones in Blackstock, South Carolina. The 5th daughter of 8 siblings. She transitioned to be with the Lord on August 27, 2019 after a short illness.

Sarah attended Baltimore Junior College where she acquired her high school diploma.

Sarah moved to Baltimore in 1947 after marrying the love of her life Andzell. They remained married for over 50 years until his death in 2000.

Sarah was one who loved to sing and it showed with her being a member of many choirs throughout the city. She was a loving wife, mother, aunt, and grandmother who spoke her mind and was direct in her thoughts and beliefs. She was no for “no mess” and was quick to let you know.

Sarah gave her life to the Lord at a very young age starting at Sweet Prospect AME Zion Church in Blackston. She remained faithful to the Lord by joining Allen AME in the late 1950's. As a member she worked on many organizations and participated actively. She sang on the choirs, performed duties of stewardess. Anything that required her help, she was there.

Sarah enjoyed cooking and baking during her free time and was noted for her sweet potato pies and a specialty for family members (stickers) lol.

She leaves to mourn: one son, Odell (daughter-in-law Gay); 8 grandchildren; 19 great grandchildren, 7 great great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many others who loved respected and depended on her for knowledge and wisdom.
