

Sarah L. Ross

July 1, 1926 - April 11, 2003

Sarah L. Ross was born July 1, 1926 in Harford County, Maryland to Blanche and Samuel Johnson and departed this life on April 11, 2003 in Charlotte, North Carolina. She lived and attended school in Bel Air, Maryland and moved to Baltimore to find employment and worked in housekeeping, retail, dry cleaning and as a store clerk. Sarah was the beloved wife of the late James W. Ross, Sr. and loving mother to Janice, Linda and James Jr. She was a long time member of Ames United Methodist Church in Bel Air, Maryland and traveled from Baltimore for services. She also attended the Otterbein United Methodist Church in Baltimore. Sarah loved being a homemaker, enjoyed sewing, hairdressing and traveling. She also enjoyed playing Pokeno, Pinochle, trips to Atlantic City and Midway, crocheting baby doll dresses, and was a dedicated collector of salt and peppershakers. Sarah is Mom/Saradie to Janice W. Rogers and son-in-law, Kenneth Jr., James Ross Jr. and daughter-in-law, Frances, and Linda J. Hardy; Grand-ma/Mom-Mom to Cameron, Aaron, Sonya, Donna, Jackie, Kristian, and Kendra; great-grandmother to five, Aunt Sarah to several, and my "other mom" to a precious few. Sarah is also survived by her Aunt Pearl Ruff; sister-in-law, Josie Stewart and "Sis" Shirley Rose; and many close relatives and dear friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
