“ I would like to take this opportunity to send my fellow feeling to you all. I have lost loved ones in death too. The feeling can be unbearable at times, however our heavenly father is there to comfort us in all our tribulation in these lasts days,(2Cor.1:3).Ms. Sarah was in her 80's , a great lenght indeed of time as the bible say at Ps.90:10,some person would live to be 70 and others because of speical mightiness 80 years.We can look to never losing our family & friends again death, why, because Death will be gone forever as 1 Cro15:26 say. May all the cherished memories of Ms. Sarah be a reflection of happiness and perfect health in the coming paradise.My condolences, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lilian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Jesus Christ said at John 5:21- "For just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to." May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and this loving Bible promise. And may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah and his Son Jesus Christ.(James 4:8; John 17:3)###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##
