“ Dear family and friends of Sarah, I am very sorry to hear about the death of your loved one. Death is always such a hard thing to go through. No one ever wants to see a loved one go. The bible tells of a time when death, sickness, and pain will be no more, these will be things of the past.##imported-begin##A. Jones##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. During this painful time and in the quiet months ahead, you can find comfort in the Bible's message of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29--"Do not marvel at this, but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out.." Yes, Jesus will repeat what he had done while he walked the earth, many years ago---raise the dead. What a wonderful blessing to look forward to.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn about the death of Sarah. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
