“ To the family of Sarah, it is truly unfortunate that you have to experience a tragic loss. However, the Bible is a soure of comfort at times such as these. May you find comfort now and in the days ahead. The Bible provide comfort now from the hope of a resurrection which is expressed at John 5:28,29. Continue to draw strength from each other and the scriptures.##imported-begin##McNeil##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear about your loss. It is so sad to see families mourn especially since God has promised good things. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. God has given his word in the Word that he is going to get rid of death. (1 Corinthians 15:26) I like to dwell on the scripture found at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. Remember God is love and he does not want anyone to suffer. (1 John 4:8)May you be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Dana##imported-end##

“ To The Loved Ones of Sarah M. Kittrell. My sincere sympathy to your family. This scripture is so comforting because it brings us hope. At John 11:25 it reads: Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come back to life". So, even though Demond may be asleep in death, on the last day, he will be resurrected to life. I hope this scripture brings comfort to your hearts##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##
