

Sarah Mae Johnson

March 3, 1941 - February 10, 2009

Sarah Mae Johnson, the eldest child that graced the union of the late Don Eugene and Annie Mae Kirk was born on March 3, 1941, in Grays Creek, North Carolina. Her parents relocated the family to Hampton, Virginia where Sarah attended the Hampton School System. She accepted Christ at an early age. She relocated to Manhattan, New York, where she resided for over forty years. In New York, she attended Missionary Baptist Church and worked as a Home Healthcare Attendant for North General Home Healthcare Corporation. On Tuesday, February 10, 2009, Sarah Mae Johnson transcended this life to receive her Crown of Glory. Sarah was preceded in death by her late husband Elwood Johnson and daughter, Carol Stith. Sarah leaves to cherish her memory; a son, Michael L. Stith; two daughters, Cynthia Jones and Jeanette Stith. She has one brother, Eugene (Linda) Kirk; two sisters, Leonas Hill and Doris (Leon) Barber, 14 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, 3 nieces, 4 nephews, and a host of other relatives, and friends. Sarah lived life to the fullest! She could always be found with a smile on her face. Sarah would light up a room with her laughter. She loved to dance, travel, and shop! Whenever Sarah heard music shortly thereafter she would be dancing. Her greatest attribute was the LOVE that she showed everyone. Sarah will be greatly missed! WE LOVE YOU SARAH!!!

Tribute Wall

“ Sarah Mae Johnson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To my loved sister. i will miss you so much, but I know that you are in heaven with all our other departed love ones. I say farewell until our souls meet again.##imported-begin##Leonas Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Leonas, I pray that God bless and keep you in his hands. Your sister is in a much better place. Just know that you will always have my love and support. Aslo, Poppy keep strong and supportive as you have always been to your sister. Jene stay strong for all your sisters and may God bless you. Love Hazel##imported-begin##Hazel Gipson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to send my fellow feeling to you all. Losing a very dear love one hurt and breaks the circle of life for all. Our creator knows how you all feel and is there with all the tender comfort, 2 Cor 1:3-4, needed to get through these days and months and years of sadness. The bible can answer any questions that may be on your all minds about death, Why do good people die, Is there any hope for our love ones in the near future, What does the future hold for them and us on an earthly Paradise? I have found the answers to all these and many more. May the support from the bible and loving friends help to make life a little more enjoyable on the journey of life ahead.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ our deepest prayers are with all the family at this time. your cousin, edward d.##imported-begin##REV.E.D.MCMILLIAN##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. It is especially sad when death overtakes some so young. The Bible makes this comforting promise: “Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.” (Psalm 34:18) It also assures us: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) The Bible also teaches that the dead will live again. Jesus himself said: “I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” (John 11:25) Continue to draw close to the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time. Sincerely, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM