

Sarah Francis Moore

May 19, 1921 - August 27, 2012

Sarah Francis Pettus Moore peacefully transitioned to her heavenly home on August 27, 2012.

Born to the late Isaiah and Selena Pettus on May 19, 1921, Sarah Francis was the second of three girls. She was preceded in death by her husband, Leonard Moore, her parents, Isaiah and Selena Pettus, and two sisters, Iantha Holmes and Elsie Pitts.

She was born in Richmond, Virginia and lived most of her life in the Fulton area of which she always spoke so fondly of.

Sarah Francis committed her life to the Lord at an early age and joined the Rising Mount Zion Baptist Church in Fulton. She was a dedicated active member until her health became an issue.

Sarah Francis retired from state employment and enjoyed her later years living with her son, Rod and his family. She was lovingly called "Nanny" by family.

She leaves to cherish their memory, a daughter Marva Harris, two sons, Roland "Bubba" Pettus and devoted son and daughter-in-law, Rod and Pamela Moore, six grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. In Revelation 21:4, Jehovah God promises to do away with our suffering. I hope when you have time you will read this scripture with your own copy of the bible. I hope this helps your family in your time of need.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
