

Sarah Parrott

March 30, 1927 - October 16, 2003

Sarah Parrott, the daughter of the late Junious and Celie Wills, was born March 30, 1927 in Mayesville, South Carolina. She departed this life on October 16, 2003 after a brief illness. She was the eldest of thirteen children, five of whom preceded her in death. Sarah received her formal education at Mayesville High School. In 1946, she married Eddie Parrot, the man with whom she would spend the rest of her life. Out of this union four children were born Junious, who preceded her in death. Annie, George, and Jannie. In 1952, Sarah along with her husband and children migrated to Baltimore, Maryland. Once settled in Baltimore, she began working in the garment industry at the Raleigh Manufacturing Company and the Misty Harbor Company from which she retired. After retirement, she worked part-time with the Department of Aging as an aide to the elderly. Shortly after coming to Baltimore, Sarah and her husband, Eddie Parrott joined the Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church. Sarah loved her church and served in many capacities, such as the Nurses unit, The Missionary Club as a member of the Deaconess Board. Sarah was the eldest of thirteen; she learned a sense of duty and responsibility. She believed and taught that "we are our brother's keeper." Thus she spent most of her life helping and serving others. She taught her children this lesson early in their lives. Sarah was also a self-appointed community activist. She tried very hard to maintain a family oriented neighborhood. No one had to guess what she felt or thought because she was outspoken and spoke her mind openly. No matter how much she chastised the young and encouraged them to clear the corner and move on, she commanded and was given the utmost respect. Consequently neighbors young and old watched out for "Miss Sarah." Family and friends knew Sarah as a caring and loving mother, wife, sister and friend. She had many lasting friendships. Sarah, you will surely be missed. Her memory will be cherished by: two daughters, Annie Akinwale and Jannie Parrott both of Baltimore, Maryland; one son, George Parrott of Baltimore, Maryland; one son-in-law, Dominic Akinwale of Baltimore, Maryland; two granddaughters, Tia Delly and Robin Akinwale both from Baltimore, Maryland; (one grandson, Junious Parrott, preceded her in death); one great-grandson, Donavin A. Bunn; six sisters, Pearl Peterson of Hampstead, New York, Tesline Herrington, Neddie LeSane and Francis Dean all of Sumter, South Carolina, Ida Wilson and Julia Brown both of Baltimore, Maryland; one brother, Elias Wells of Mayesville, South Carolina; two sisters-in-law, Mildred Wells and Sue Mae Wells both of Mayesville, South Carolina; six brothers-in-law, Henry Peterson of Hampstead, New York, David Herrington, Carlisle Le Sane and Johnnie Dean all of Sumter, South Carolina, William Brown and Charlie Frierson both of Baltimore, Maryland; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. Our family finds much comfort and solace in the Bible. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 says- "Blessed be...the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation." We hope you find comfort in these words as we have.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
