“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. 1 Corinthians rightly calls death our enemy, however that same verse reveals: "The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death" Also, John 5:28,29 lovingly informs:"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". May you receive much comfort and strength in the days ahead and also from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Jones, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
