

Sarah Shannon

April 15, 1914 - November 30, 2002

Faith makes it wholly possible to quietly endure. The violent worlds around us for in God we are secure. Sarah E. Shannon was born on April 15, 1914 to the late Adville Shannon and Sadie Shannon Blocker, in Baltimore, Maryland. She entered the eternal realm of heavenly peace on Saturday, November 30, 2002. Sarah received her education in the Baltimore City School System. She worked at the former Lord Baltimore Hotel for many years, until her retirement. Sarah will be remembered as a very strong-willed matriarch, as those who know her can attest to, and also as a kind gentle soul. She cherished her visits to Audrey, Aleisha and family in Glen Burnie. She looked forward, each summer, to trips down to Myrtle Beach and Sumter, South Carolina, where she had and extended family to visit. After her retirement she lived in the Greenhill senior apartments for many years. She was well known by her neighbors and loved to stop and chat. She developed a close friendship with her neighbor Bertha (Grace) Gray, whom she saw on a daily basis. She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving nieces, Audrey S. Booker and Michelle Shannon; great niece, Aleisha Green and her husband, Nkossi Dambita; great nephew, Brian Johns and wife, Vantoria; sister-in-law, Celeste Shannon; cousins, Coley and Johnny White and Vincenia Sayles; great-great nieces, Yassitungu and Miejo Dambita; great-great nephew, Brandon Johns as well as many other relatives and friends. Sometimes it is hard to understand why some things have to be - But in His Wisdom God has planned beyond our power to see! The Family

Tribute Wall

“ Sarah Shannon

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Sarah Shannon

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM