“ Scoot, Terry, and Alan, I was so sorry to hear about Ms. Sarah's passing. While I was unable to attend her service, all of you are in my prayers. I cannot help smiling when I remember how all of us were in and out of each other's houses on Lafayette Avenue like we all lived in both. We had so many years of fun, love, and laughter between our families. She was a wonderful "Other Mother," and she will be missed. Love, Joyce!

“ To the Taylor family you have nothing but my deepest sympathy and blessings to you all. I am saddened that I won't be able to be there with you physically due to my health . I I am truly thankful for the many years that you have excepted me and my family , the many Christmas and Thanksgiving dinners we shared the many funny moments to be remembered. Thank you for the love and the wisdom that you shared with me. Thank you for the many prayers that you prayed over me during my sickness , I thank you ,it has been a pleasure of being a part of your family .jJob well done. Heaven has another angel . The loss of a mother is like No other. You will be remembered as the last time I saw you smiling sitting in the chair . You fought a good fight The fight is over now you can spread your wings my angel ,spread your wings .

“ Ms Sarah..... what can I say about a woman that was confident, sassy, classy, put others before herself, and loved others as much as others loved and adored her!!!

As I sit here thinking of her, I laugh reminded of a time that Cheryl and I took her shopping. She picked an outfit that was..... well shall we say grown and sexy!!!! She showed it to us, asking what we thought (now who am I to tell her..... ummmmmm no.... LOL). Cheryl responded by saying, you are gonna get cold wearing that and went to go pick out some items she felt was better suited. These new outfits were the complete opposite!!!! She leaned over to me (quietly and very subtle)..... “she gets on my nerves”. I can still see this like it was yesterday.

Man oh man..... she will truly be missed ❤️❤️❤️

Love you Ms Sarah!!!!

“ Although I only had the pleasure of knowing Ms. Sarah for a short time it was if she was in my life for many years. I became very fond of her immediately And As I reflect on the conversations we had that would cause me to laugh Or just appreciate her kind words I'm very grateful to say I knew her. Ms. Sarah will always have a very special place in my heart. Thank you to her children for sharing your mom with me❤️

“ Mrs. Sarah, you lived a long beautiful life and have a wonderful family to show for it! I didn't know you for as long as I would have like too, but I'm appreciative of the time we did have. Journee loved her Nana and I know you loved her just as much back. I don't ask for much, but can you give my baby Lyric a kiss for me please? Sleep well forevermore!

“ Dear Mama, I have been thoroughly impacted by your compassion, care, insight, and giving heart. You are definitely one of the people that made me reconsider my selfish ways and pay homage to the Grace of God. I cannot speak enough about the kind acts and great support you have showed us all through the years. I didn't get a chance to say goodbye the way I wanted to, but, love knows no bounds. I asked the Lord Jesus Christ to send you my love and I believe He did. You will truly be missed.

“ Took me a minute to write on here. It's so hard to get the words out, when you loose the ones you love. You were an amazing women, with a beautiful smile and the biggest heart ❤️. You've touched so many people and followed Gods orders, (most of the time lol) I know you were a spicy mama💕. I'm grateful to have had you in my life. No more suffering, I can see you walking around in heaven with my Daddy smiling looking down on all of us. Please tell him I said Hi and I love and Miss him so much. And also can you tell him to come visit me in my dreams, I wanna see his face. I love you so much and miss you. I wish I had more time to spend with you, but when we meet again, its going to be a Party 🌸

“ It was an honor and a pleasure just to know you. When I was raising my four beautiful daughters. I would often stop by your house and asked for your advice. You always told me to hang on in there, and keep doing what I was doing. I appreciated your advice and wisdom. You will definitely be truly missed. May God continue to bless your soul until judgement day. My sympathies, and condolences to the family. Peace and God's blessings. Minister Kevin Williams

“ Hey Lizzie. This is Pam aka your Meeka. It was really a challenge as well as a rewarding experience to take care of you. If I had it to do all over again I would. Without hesitation. In my younger years I always thought I was grown and didn't have to listen to anyone, but as I have grown up into the woman I am now, I can thank you for that. The independence and sacrifices for your family showed me, I could do it to. And I know we came a long, long, long way over the years. Thank you for loving my kids and loving me like a child you gave birth to. You were the closest to a mother that I could have since I grew up without mines. I watched you be a mother so I guess I learned from you. I think I did good. You never excluded me from anything. All that was my mess. We became girlfriends and had some good laughs, and some good gossip too. I still can't believe that you left us but I know you better off in heaven above. You gonna give them a run for the money but it's all good. You gave me one....No one can replace what I've been feeling these last couple of days knowing you are not here anymore. I've never been a crybaby but this has changed me. As I'm writing this the tears keep falling. You left a pain and a void that I didn't expect, but I accept. Meaning I didn't realize how much of an impact your absence would have on my heart. This truly was a surprise. Please remember Pam aka Meeka misses you and I would do it all again, just for you. Love & kisses. 🍷🥰

“ We never know how much time we have with a person! I know we all have to leave one day, but, its some people who we NEVER expect to leave and I thought you would never leave. It's still a shock to me! You've been through alot but you always made it through. You were the best and thee only grandmother I had! I know I got on your nerves, but you always cooperated with me, my camera, and my car rides 🚗. Most importantly, I hope that you're resting peacefully and warm. The last thing I did was made sure you were warm because I knew that was very important to you and I didn't want you to be uncomfortable. I love you and you will be missed 😭

“ Hi Mama,
Thank you for always being kind to me, for never making me feel less than family. Thank you for showing me true compassion...I remember the first time I was asked to go with you to feed the homeless. I really didn't want to do it but, as I watched you, sometimes barely able to stand, passing out food to dozens of people, with a smile for each one, it really changed my heart. You didn't know how your actions affected others, but that's the stories that I hear about you...how you touched so many lived through your compassionate nature and your kind and gentle heart. I'm so grateful for the times we shared, the many talks, and the wisdom you imparted. Thank you for eating the meals I would cook for you even though I know they weren't always good but, you never complained. I use to say when I was younger that I wish I had a grandmother...well God heard my prayers because He gave me you! Rest well, Mama! I love you always.

“ To the Family of Mrs.Sarah Taylor being able to take care of your mom was a wonderful we had happy time . We went shopping for clothes ,eating at her favorite restaurant and just spending time together. Being one of her caregiver, it wasn't a job because the family embarrassed me and my staff as family. I will miss all our talk Mrs. Sarah , your tea time with my mom and our Bible studies. Take your rest God is in Control.

Love 💕 you

“ I was your first born & always felt special & treasured. I remember you telling me "when you were born your feet were too good to touch the floor." Until this day that statement makes me smile because I am reminded of how much I was loved. You were the best mother in the world & because of the foundation you laid for your children & the sacrifices you made for us we are who we are today. I feel comfort in knowing that as adults we did everything we possibly could to take care of you, & made sure you had quality to your life until you took your last breath on 6/25/20. Personally, I tried to give my all & all to you & made sure you didn't want for nothing because that's what you deserved! Sometimes you would say to me "you're a good doobie," that's another statement that would always make me smile because that meant I had done a good job." Many people have reached out to offer their condolences & virtually all of them tell me how your kindness & caring impacted their lives in a positive manner, you probably have no idea of the many lives you have touched, & how much you are appreciated. You are so well loved Lizzie & will be missed tremendously by many. Now it's time for you to rest in your heavenly home, I am sure the Lord has said "JOB WELL DONE SARAH." Say hello to our family & friends, you are now in the best place you could possibly be. I have & will always love you forever. Thank you, thank you, thank you for being a wonderful mother. Until we meet again.

PS: And thank you for being able to keep a secret, you were really good with that (can't say the same about myself). ( :

Scoot (the child whose feet were too good to touch the floor)!

“ Aunt Sarah was full of life and loved everyone. She helped all that needed help and if she didn't have what they needed she would seek it out from others. She was a woman of God and loved life to the fullest. We will miss you so much but your spirit will remain with us. Your work here was done as God peacefully wrapped you in His arms and transitioned you to your heavenly home.
Rest in Heaven Aunt Sarah.

“ Ms. Sarah was one of my mom (Carolyn White) longest and dearest friend. When my mom passed away in 2011, Ms. Sarah grieved as much as we did because they were such great friends! I offer my sincerest condolences to Ms. Sarah's family...your mom was a true servant leader for the church and a wonderful model of Christ-like love and charity for all of us! May she rest in peace as God's Good and Faithful Servant!! Love and Peace to all!

I being one of her caregivers will never ever forget her breakfasts on Tuesday n Thursday...her breakfast in led one egg, two slices of bacon (cut in half), one slice of buttered toast n her sautéed potatoes. When I thought she'd want something different she'd readily say "You know what I want". I did this four the eleven months I was with her. I'll never forget bringing her her food n her raising her arms in the air with excitement. Sweet, sweet memories n I also thank her so much for our times watching I LOVE LUCY❤️
