

Sarah Turner

December 9, 1924 - January 9, 2005

Sarah Elizabeth Turner, daughter of the late Warren and Martha Boyd, was born on December 9, 1924 in Plymouth, North Carolina. She departed this life on January 9, 2005 after a lengthy illness. At an early age, she and her family moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Sarah, as she was fondly called, was reared in a Christian home and accepted Christ at an early age. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and was employed in various positions in Baltimore, Maryland. She married the late George Logan Turner on March 14, 1963. Prior to his departure, Sarah devoted herself to assisting him during his long illness. Sarah made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was a true friend and a devoted person. She leaves fond memories to be cherished by two sons, Robert Charles Lowman and Theodore Donald Boyd; one brother, Linwood Boyd; two granddaughters, three great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. The Bible also promises that our loved ones will live again by means of a resurrection (John 5:28, 29). However, when they are resurrected they will not live in conditions that they previously lived in. The earth will eventually be transformed into a paradise with no sicknesses, war, crime etc. Please read these promises for yourself at Revelation 21:3, 4; Psalm 37:10, 11; Isaiah 2:4. May you put faith and trust in these promises because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Turner, Please accept my deepest sympathy. Unfortunately, I also understand the pain and sorrow associated with the death of a loved one. However, I have been able to find comfort not only from my precious memories but the encouraging words from God our Father, found at Isaiah 66:13. Please take a minute and read and reflect on this promise. I hope it will be a comfort for you as well.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
