Obituary

A Time to Mourn.....

On Saturday, December 5, 2020, our beloved Scott Elston Washington was called home to glory and entered into eternal rest. He is preceded in death by his parents, James Sr. and Lillian Carter Washington. He is survived by his devoted wife, Carolyn Washington of 46 years; two daughters, Lenice Sudds (Adrian/Chester), Erica Wiggins, one son, Dominique Jackson; eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; a devoted and loving brother James (Jimmy) Washington, Jr.; nieces, Tara Washington and Connie Ferguson; nephews, Gregory Washington and Jason Haas; and a host of great-nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

A Time to Be Born.....

Scott was born on March 2, 1947 in Hanover County where he received Jesus Christ at an early age. Scott graduated from Commerce High School in Worcester, MA. He served in the military (Army) and later returned to Richmond, Virginia. He worked for Henrico County for many years.

A Time to Be Love.....

Scott was known by many names, Dad, Papa, Sonny, Scottie, or Scott. He was known for his easy-going personality and a smile that could light up the room, along with his kindness and willingness to help others.

“ :weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.”

“ Mrs. Washington, Niecey, Nia and family, please know that my heart is truly with you all during your time of loss and sorrow. I know words may not bring the comfort you need, but I pray you find comfort and peace in knowing the Lord is with you and will carry you through. I pray you find solace in the memories of the times you spent together. You are a part of our family and we love you. James, Gabriel and I are here for you and share in this time of sorrow.

“ A memory that I have with Uncle Scott is listening to him talk and show his large record collection with their funky sounds. He always had some advice to share and would end a serious conversation with me laughing. I'll miss him very much, but will always have those good memories.

Love you, Uncle Scott

“ "To Carolyn and Family, I am so sorry for the passing of your loss Scott. He had a great sense of humor and an infectious smile. A smile that before you knew it, everyone around him would be smiling too. I am thinking of you & wishing you peace and comfort as you remember your devoted husband. "As you comprehend this profound loss, let yourself cry knowing each tear is a note of the love rising to the heavens"
My sincere condolences.
