“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Despite the pain, you can find comfort in the Scriptures and the Christian hope of the resurrection (Acts 24:15). Many people are taught that God is responsible for the death of our loved ones---- that somehow fate played a role. However, the Bible does not support the idea of fate. We see that at Ecclesiastes 9:11. The latter part of that verse says:...."time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all" In other words...tragedies and accidents happen out of the blue sometimes. However, Jesus promises at John 5:28,29--that there will be a resurrection. Knowing that Jehovah God provided a way to reverse the painful event of death should provide comfort for us.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##

“ I remember Terry from Dundalk Middle school. I also remember when she first moved down T.S.(Turners Station)Her and I used to play basketball together in school and she couldn't even mke a lay-up on the court. She will be missed but never forgotten. She will always be in my heart. Her and I have to same birthday. My prayers goes out to the family.##imported-begin##Neika##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Ecclesiastes 9:11 tells us: "Time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all". That is reminding us of a sad fact, tragic events can befall anyone of us. Also, the Bible reveals that our loving Creator wants us to live and he does not take our loved ones away from us. Ezekiel 18:32 confirms this when it states: "For I do not take any delight in the death of someone dying is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah". Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you reflect on this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Hill##imported-end##

“ Let me start off by saying GOD is so good. I send my prayers to the family and friends of Tia. I did not know her but all I can say is that she did not deserve for her life to be taken this way. I lost my 16 year old nephew in Jan. of 07 and I know this is not an easy thing to get through. To the mother of this young lady may GOD be with you at all times and I know he will trust in him and he will help you get through this. My heart goes out to you and I will keep praying that you continue to be strong. And to all of those who gave comfort on this page Bless you all.... "What don't kill you will make you stronger"...##imported-begin##Najai##imported-end##
