

Sean Brandon Hicks

June 20, 1982 - March 29, 2024

SEAN BRANDON HICKS, known as “Smurf” to his loving family, was born to Ronald Sr. and Etta Hicks on June 20, 1982. He departed this life suddenly on March 29, 2024.

Sean received a private and public-school education in Maryland. He graduated from Overlea High School and attended Essex Community College. Sean worked in the fast-food industry and loved to watch Anime cartoons and films; wrestling, and played video games. He was also an avid collector of action figures.

Sean enjoyed attending the Otakon Anime Convention. Additionally, he enjoyed attending wrestling matches and sporting events with his father, Ronald Sr. He even had the opportunity to meet legendary athletes such as Magic Johnson, Jim Brown, and many wrestling celebrities.

Although he did not talk a lot, Sean was very strong, especially for his family when we needed him the most. Sean was our rock, and he loved his family. Just like his father and older brother, Sean could have a conversation with anyone. Most importantly, he was a good man, and his family was very proud of him. Sean was the “baby” of the family, and as the youngest, he was very well cared for. We love Sean deeply, and we will miss him very much.

Sean leaves behind to grieve: his loving and devoted mother, Etta, his devoted sister, Chantay; and a host of other relatives and friends. Preceding him in death are his father Ronald V. Hicks Sr., brother Ronald V. Hicks Jr., and sister Rhonda Hicks.
