

Sean Martin Douglas

May 3, 1974 - July 13, 2007

Thomas said to him, "Lord we do not know where we are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth and the life: no one comes to the Father, but by me." John 14:5-7 Sean Martin Douglas was born on May 3, 1974 in Baltimore, Maryland to Ethel and Gregory Douglas. He suddenly departed this life on Friday, July 13, 2007. God saw the need of another flower in His garden. He came down, gently touched Sean and called him home. On March 16, 2001, Sean married Aletha Coleman and from this union two children were born. Sean received his education from Frederick Douglass Senior High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Later he attended Potomac Job Corps Center in Washington, DC, where he received training in cement and masonry. He worked briefly at Bethlehem Steel Corporation as a cement mason. During his employment at Bethlehem Steel, Sean attended and completed Barbering School. Also, he enjoyed working as a D.J. and MC at many social functions around the city. Sean was sensitive, humorous, compassionate, organized and thoughtful. He enjoyed being around family and friends. He was a devoted father. Sean enjoyed happy times; especially doing things with his children. Sean will be missed because of his sense of humor and his ability to make people laugh. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Alethea Douglas; four children, Raquel, Shaun, Sean Jr. and LeSean Douglas; mother, Ethel Douglas; father, Gregory Douglas; two brothers, Gregory and Reginald Douglas; six aunts, four uncles, a mother-in-law, four brothers-in-law, two sisters-in-law, nephews, nieces, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends. Sean also leaves to cherish his memory a devoted and special friend, Titania “Tanya” Pate.

“ Dear family, I just read about your loss of your loved one. Please accept my sympathy. I know what loss is, because I have lost many family members and friends in death. It is truly something so difficult to deal with. May Jehovah God bless you and comfort you with the wonderful promise of the resurrection. Acts 24:15 promises that there will be a resurrection of the righteous. We can trust what our heavenly father says, because he never fails to fulfill his word. One day we will see our loved ones come to life again if we are obedient children. Please be comforted. Isaiah 46:10##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, I know it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Coming up down Lexington Terrace Sean would keep a brother laughing. A genuinely great guy. Sorry we did not have the chance to get up as adults yet you were a brother none the less. My Love to the family and my prayers. My family and I will keep you before God in our prayers through this time of bereavement.
