

Sean McCullough Jr.

February 5, 2008 - June 16, 2014

On August 12, 2005 and on February 5, 2008, two angels were sent down to earth to walk amongst man. Decerio and Sean McCullough (also known as Turtle and Chipmunk). Both children were born of Sean Sr. and Rokea McCullough. Both attended Robert W. Coleman Elementary School with their Principal, Mrs. Thompson and Vice Principal Mrs. Stuart. Here is where Decerio learned from his teacher, Ms. Parham that "it's okay to learn a different way" and Sean learned from his favorite teacher, Ms. Hayes where he always told us, "big is beautiful", that's why he loved her so. Decerio had such a social problem in school but had an attitude problem like a grown man. Sean never had many issues besides being a middle child, he wanted independence, but also wanted to be the baby, Decerio was a loving child, he didn't like school but he loved having friends. He wanted to be liked so much. Sean didn't care much for people and their opinions. He was so independent and okay with being by himself, but he always needed his brother. Decerio and Sean were great big brothers to their little sister, Wynter. She loved them both very much. She could not sleep at night without Decerio and couldn't go a day without fighting Sean. Our family always sticks together, family first. Decerio and Sean took that to the end and because of the sacrifice their sister lives on, living and never forgetting. They will be missed continuously and loved unconditionally. Decerio and Sean leaves behind: their mother and father, Rokea and Sean McCullough; little sisters, Wynter and Diamond; grandmothers, Tiffany and Sabra; grandfathers, Angelo and Nathaniel; greatgrandmothers, Beverly, Mildred and Shirley; great-great-grandmother, Bertha; aunts, Sha'Kea, Tanya, Angela, Tiffany, Keisha, Sidney, Sharrell, Teesha, Latitia and Ashanta; uncles, Ronnie, Farmer, Jamal, Brent, Randy, Timmy, Anthony and Dewight; cousins, Cazeem, Alayniah, Alicia, Kamora; the Thompsons, the Marks, the Wilder Family, the Goodie family, the McCullough family, the Robert W. Coleman family, the Ridgehill family, the Bruce St. Family, the New Era family, the Allen family, the Coates family and everyone who has ever encountered Decerio and Sean, the Soldiers of God.

“ To the Family of Sean McCullogh Jr.:
I wanted to write to give my condolence to you since you lost your loved one in death. Death is such a painful thing. The bible gives us hope though. It says at John 5:28 'not to be amazed for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out' So we are waiting on the time when God will allow us to see our loved ones again. And we know that this will happen because Titus 1:2 says 'God cannot lie'. Just imagine a time when there will be no more death. Well that's what Revelation 21:4 says. It tell us that 'there will be no more sickness, death or pain'. It says the former things have passed away.' So we have such comforting hope from the bible and I hope these words have brought you comfort. If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me or go to www.jw.org.
