

Seconious Bivens

December 10, 1963 - May 14, 2004

Seconious McDonald Bivens fell asleep in death late Friday evening, at Johns Hopkins on May 14, 2004. He was born in Turners Station Maryland to Seconious and Hattie Bivens on December 10, 1963. Family values and togetherness were paramount in his life. His love for his grandparents was obvious throughout his life and a joy to them. Cecil as he was popularly known, attended a public school in Baltimore County where he mastered the skills of a trained saxophonist. The trade school of choice was Mergenthaler High School where he chose Commercial Baking as a vocation. He graduated from there in 1982. He was employed at Ms. Desserts for many years as a Primo Baker and in 1984 received the National Association for the Specialty Food Trade Award for Excellence and Dedication in Production. From there he worked at Crispy Bagel, Italian Stallion, and the Great Cookie. He was known by such pet names as Top, and Lil Cecil. He was affectionately called Mac by a devoted friend of seventeen years. His favorite sport was Basketball. The Ravens were his favorite Football team. He enjoyed the music of Sting, 2 Pac, Prince and Frank Sinatra as of late. His love of reading made him a joy to talk to and he could hold a conversation with people of all walks of life. Some even referred to him as a "walking newspaper." Cecil was loving, kind, considerate, generous and a big hearted person who loved children and made friends wherever he went including his residencies at Stop and Surrender in Philadelphia and Right Turn of Baltimore. Cecil leaves to cherish his memories: father and mother, Seconious and Hattie, two brothers, Gary Lee and Rodney Maurice; one sister, Gina Marie; one sister-in-law, Christine; one grandfather, Samuel Bivens; one grandmother, Marion Williams; one great-great aunt, Sue Henderson of New Jersey; two great uncles, Thomas and Theodore Wilborn; three uncles, Bennie L. Bivens; Willie M. Williams of Nebraska and Kevin McD. Williams; five aunts, Roberta Miles, Virginia Haskel of Texas; Barbara Holt, Betty Jones of New York and Esther Robinson of S. Carolina; three nephews, Gary Jr., Christopher and Devin along with fifteen cousins. We would like to acknowledge all whose lives were touched by Cecil, space would not permit that but YOU know who you are

“ To The Family of Mr. Bivens: I am truly sorry for your great loss. I send my condolences to the entire family. However, God took notice of Seconious' good heart and love for family happiness. He knows that you all miss him very much. Thus, God promises a resurrection at John 5:28,29 in which "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...". Also, Jehovah God promises a time where sickness that causes death will be no more, as mentioned at Isaiah 33:24. We must wait for these wonderful promises to be fulfilled so that we can once again be united with our dead loved ones.##imported-begin##Kendra Adams##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to you and your family. During this difficult time Almighty God, Jehovah, has words of comfort to share with us. He encourages us at 1 Peter 5:6,7, "Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God...because he cares for you." Please take comfort in the fact that Jehovah understands your sorrow and will give you the strength to endure.##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##

“ Our condolences to The Bivens family. Every day we are closer to that promised New World. In the meantime we have an anchor for our soul- our faith in God's Word. Isaiah 26:19 reminds us- "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." May we all work hard to get a hold on the real life and greet our loved ones at that time.##imported-begin##Joseph and Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
