

Senora Johnson

August 23, 1926 - July 28, 2002

All praise and honor to God for the life of Senora Johnson. Born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 23, 1926 to John and Ada Cherry, Senora was the youngest of five and the only daughter. Being the only daughter, she had a special relationship with her mother. She was raised in a Christian household and accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age. Senora was educated in the Baltimore public school system. Senora began working at an early age at Elite Laundry until she met and married William H. Johnson. Out of this union they were blessed with five beautiful children. Senora loved to sing. She always loved to listen to her mother and Aunt Sweet sing when she was a young girl. Because of the songs she heard her mother and aunt sing, she was inspired to sing and lift up the name of Jesus through song. She sang with the Harmonette gospel singers for five years and was lead singer at the Little Fountain Baptist Church. Senora had a passion for cooking and helping people. For most of her life she was a cook in various restaurants. Cooking and sharing her specialties always made her happy to see them enjoyed. Senora was a kind and loving person. She was a loving and wonderful mother and a good friend to all, always willing to lend a helping hand. Senora's loving kindness and sweet spirit was brought to an end on July 28, 2002 after a short illness. She was needed to praise and lift up the name of Jesus in heaven. She leaves to mourn: her only son, Tyrone K. Johnson; three daughters, Theondres Thomas Mercedes Kent and Maxine Willis; two grandsons, Sven Waweru and Wesley Willis; granddaughter, Nicole Robinson; great granddaughter, Nikira Jenkins; her best friend and sister-in-Christ, Barbara Holly; and a host of other relatives and friends.
