“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep
Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there, I did not die.
Mary Frye, American poet (1904 – 2004)*

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Grey Family. May you find peace and comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures us that our dear loved ones have a resurrection hope. Also at 1 Corinthian 15:26 He even promises us that "death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ Sorry to hear about y'all lost. She was like a second mother to me. It has been many of years since we last spoke we lost contact and I had no way of getting in contact with her. I don't know if you remember me but my name is Laverne I am the daughter of the late Percy Henry.

My Aunt Seressa was a beautiful Woman inside and out. Aunt Seressa just like my mom soon as we enter her house she was ready to fix us something to eat even at the age 90+. Mom would say I'm going to Baltimore, I would pack my clothes in two seconds and I never wanted to leave. I know you and mom have a lot of catching up to do. Your presence will be missed. I do know your in a beautiful place with Uncle Earl and mom like the old times and to my beautiful cousins hang in there I've been there it's not easy you will have good days and some bad but at the end of it God will give you some Peace to heal your hurting Hearts. Love you Cousins and Aunt Seressa until meet again Love your niece Frances.
