January 7, 1967 - September 28, 2004

Serge Civil, 37, of Richmond, Virginia was born on January 7, 1967 in Port Au Prince, Haiti. He was called home to rest on September 28, 2004. Serge was a very loving, respectful, kind, gentle person and a very loyal and devoted father. He always left a lasting impression on all he encountered. He will definitely be missed by one and all. He leaves to cherish his memories, his devoted lifetime soul mate, Ms. Cheryl Winstead of the home; daughter, Chekira; stepson, Christopher, both of the home; stepdaughters, Tina Taylor and Tonya Harmon; mother, Lenique Civil Culrivarrice' of Port Au Prince, Haiti; father, Clirus LaFoie, of Miami, Florida; two brothers; one sister; a host of other relatives and friends, among them three devoted friends, Felix Romero, Rochelle Gilliard and Samuel Joseph; and a devoted nephew, Waddell Blackston. Bereaved by our loss, but uplifted by his home going and our memories.

“ Cheryl, I know we haven't known each other long, but when someone goes through something of this magnitude we all come together as a family. You and yours are in my prayers, stay strong and take one day at a time and leave everything to the man upstairs,, I never got the chance to meet Seige but from the talk of him he was a good man,, Cheryl me and my family wishes you the best in this time of sorrow.....

“ I measure every grief... I measure every grief I meet With analytic eyes; I wonder if it weighs like mine, Or has an easier size. I wonder if they bore it long, Or did it just begin? I could not tell the date of mine, It feels so old a pain. I wonder if it hurts to live, And if they have to try, And whether, could they choose between, They would not rather die. I wonder if when years have piled-- Some thousands-- on the cause Of early hurt, if such a lapse Could give them any pause; Or would they go on aching still Through centuries above, Enlightened to a larger pain By contrast with the love. The grieved are many, I am told; The reason deeper lies,-- Death is but one and comes but once And only nails the eyes. There's grief of want, and grief of cold,-- A sort they call 'despair,' There's banishment from native eyes, In sight of native air. And though I may not guess the kind Correctly yet to me A piercing comfort it affords In passing Calvary, To note the fashions of the cross Of those that stand alone Still fascinated to presume That some are like my own.

“ Cheryl, I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remember Serge and how he loved you and his family so. Especially him buying Chekira that new bike and how much you all meant to one another. Please take comfort in knowing that I believe God had his arms around Serge the whole time (comforting and protecting him). I will ask and pray that he continues to do the same for you and your family in this difficult hour.##imported-begin##Keisha Bates##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Serge: I am sorry for your great loss. I send the entire family my condolences. But the Bible also provides comfort in this day of grief. John 5:28,29 speaks about a time when "all those in the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out". So there will be a chance to be reunited with our dead loved ones! Now, we must wait on Jehovah God to fulfill his loving promise and serve him ever more as the day draws near.##imported-begin##Kendra##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. 1 Corinthians 15:26 informs us that death is our "enemy". That same verse informs us that death will be "done away with". What about our dead loved ones? Acts 24:15 assures us- "there is going to be a resurrection." Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43 promise a Paradise for our earth. May we endure until these divinely inspired promises are fulfilled.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Serge. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when is was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
