

Mr. Shabro B. Meredith

July 26, 1969 - October 31, 2010

SHABRO BYRON MEREDITH, was born on July 26, 1969 to Rodney Bruce Meredith & Betty Mae Meredith. He died on October 31, 2010 in Bon Secours Hospital after many years of illness.

He attended Baltimore City Public Schools. After high school he began the trade of carpentry, which lead him to a Managerial position at Knoxx Ins. He was very creative, art was his true passion. He filled many hearts with joy by creating beautiful greeting cards.

Shabro was more than just a grandson, son, brother, cousin, nephews and father. He was an inspiration to many. His playful and humorous demeanor would shine through the roughest times. He loved a good joke... and could tell one too. His greatest moments were spent with family; he was a true family man. His love had no limit; it embraced everyone around him. I can honestly say that Shabro would give his last to those in true need. He loved a good board game, he loved cartoons, he loved a good movie, and most of all he loved good food. Anyone who truly knew Shabro can honestly say that there were few bad words you could say about him. He was a child of God, he was a soldier. His fight has ended on earth, and he will rest now. A soldier has fallen, but he will always live in our hearts of all who have had the honor of knowing him.

“ Mr. Rodney and Mrs. Betty,
This is Kevin and I am truly sorry for your loss, and share your pain. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) What a wonderful day that will be for us all !!! I will be stopping by to see you soon!
