

Shamar Ravon Trimmer

May 5, 1995 - March 30, 2025

Shamar Ravon Trimmer, affectionately known as “Pea,” was born on May 5, 1995, in Richmond, Virginia, to Gary Bull Sr. and Felicia Thomas and adopted by Mary Trimmer. On March 30, 2025, Shamar entered into eternal rest, leaving behind a legacy of love and laughter.

He was educated in Henrico County Public Schools, attending Glen Lea Elementary, Wilder Middle School, and Henrico High School. Following his graduation, Shamar pursued further studies in HVAC and physical therapy.

In June 2005, at just 10 years old, Shamar accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior and united with Trinity Baptist Church.

Shamar worked as a Manager at McDonald’s on Midlothian Turnpike for the past seven years. Previously He worked with Team Fishel as an underground cord and pipeline laborer, where he was respected for his diligence and work ethic.

Outside of work, Shamar embraced life with a vibrant spirit. He enjoyed boxing, football, basketball, gaming, and listening to music. But above all, his greatest joy came from spending time with family and friends, creating memories that will live on in the hearts of those who knew him.

Shamar was preceded in death by his grandmother Munell Whitehead and his uncle Lawrence Lewis. He leaves behind a host of cherished loved ones, including Jeep, Gary, Gemar, Jasmine, Kimberly, Ra'Kim, Jake, Tyrone, Nikki, Re'shae, and his favorite aunt, Clara "Rea" Lewis. He will be remembered for his warmth, his humor, and his enduring love for those closest to him.
