

Shanikia Shadana Bowman

March 7, 1976 - August 24, 2002

Shanikia Shadana Bowman, daughter of John and Angela Bowman, was born March 7, 1976 in Baltimore, Maryland. Shanikia quietly slipped into the arms of the angels and went back home. Shanikia received her education at Margaret Brent Elementary School, she later graduated from Baltimore City College and was pursuing her degree in psychology. While being enrolled full time, Shanikia was employed full time as an in-house counselor, who cared for disadvantaged adults for Gallagher Services. Shanikia was a beautiful, strong, young black woman who dedicated her life to Christ and helping her family and friends. Shanikia recently received her right hand fellowship with Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. Shanikia leaves to mourn: her mother, Angela Bowman; stepfather, Albert Cloude; father, John Sr.; brother, John Jr.; grandmother, Regina Armstead; aunts, Sheila Murphy, Ida Stewart, Regina Brown, Yvette Armstead, Denna Armstead, Brenda Bowman, Yvette Holmes, Roxanne Bowman and Lisa Jennings; uncles, Kevin Armstead, James Bowman and Luther Jennings; special friends, Ellsworth White, Cecil Harris jr., Sherrie McKinney and Rhonda Wilson; godmothers, Quinny Wilson, Sharon Davis, Kim Davis and Donnetta; and a host of cousins.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ I will miss her laughter, her smile, and her sweet heart. Healing is a process of slowly being able to remember without unbearable pain. It is never about forgetting, because there is no way ANYONE could forget such an awesome young woman! RIP Shanikia, I love you, and I miss you.##imported-begin##Bonnie Zeiler##imported-end##
