“ Hey Ms. Shannon, felt myself thinking of you alot lately and just wanted to share a memory. Remember how we first met, me and my sister was playing on the play ground. you gave us the biggest smile and behind you was Erica. i will never forget that day because i gained not only a new friend .... but more family. i watched how you grew as a person from when i was a child to when i became a young adult. even though we didnt spend a lot f time together , during your last couple of years... just seeing you on the humble and be able to talk to you and see how u were and to see how lively u were. and you will truly be missed angel

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. (Isaiah 65:21,22) You can have the hope of being reunited with your dear dead loved ones here on earth. The Bible also assures us: "He will swallow up death forever, And the sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ So sad that we have to loose our loved ones to death. But this won't be forever. A time will come when sickness and death will be no more. This is found at Revelation 21:3,4.
